The musical score is arranged in two systems. The first system includes a Voice part with the lyrics "Bles-sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!". Below the voice are staves for High HD, Low HD, and Conga, which provide a rhythmic accompaniment. The piano part is shown in grand staff notation. The second system begins with a vocal entry marked with a '5' above the staff, with the lyrics "Bles-sed is she who comes in the name of the Lord!". This system also includes HD, Conga, and Piano parts. A large, semi-transparent watermark for "Beatin' Path Publications" is overlaid across the center of the page.

Kerri Lynn Nichols

Kerri Lynn Nichols has been a student and teacher of Orff-Schulwerk for twenty-five years, receiving her Orff certification from UC Santa Cruz and the University of Memphis and attending the international course at the Orff Institut in Salzburg, Austria. Ms. Nichols is a singer-songwriter, recording artist, dancer-choreographer and rhythm facilitator. Her compositions, choreography and musicals have been commissioned for community projects with children, dance companies such as Kaleidoscope and Enertia of Seattle, and local children's theatre groups. Ms. Nichols has taught all ages in both the public and private sectors and is now a frequent presenter and clinician for state, national and international conferences. As an adjunct professor for several universities, she designs and implements courses for educators. She founded the performing groups Diversity, Voices, Synergy Dance Group and Zo Kwe Zo Percussion Ensemble. Currently, she is the director for The Songlight Children's Choir and The Olympia Peace Choir in Washington state, where she resides with her family. Ms. Nichols is the author of several books and recordings for educators and children. The core of her work is to foster individual empowerment, build life skills and strengthen communities through the magic of music and movement.
